Dance for wellness to benefit local cancer victim

Dr. Nima Rahmany is determined to help local cancer victim pay for treatments BC Medical wont.

Maple Ridge, BC – Dr. Nima Rahmany has taken a pro-active approach to help Laura Caldovino pay for her cancer treatments. As it was determined that cancer had spread from her breast to her spine, doctors gave Caldovino an 18-per-cent chance of living for five years. Determined to beat these odds, Caldovino has been undergoing an expensive naturopathic regimen called Careseng.

To date she has spent over $10,000 and it is expected that she will need another $20,000 to continue the treatment. “I read the story in the newspaper and watched Laura on television talk about the challenges going on in her life right now, and I wanted to get involved, beyond simply donating money” says Rahmany, Laura’s chiropractor.

The ‘Dance for Wellness’ was born, “as a Salsa instructor and performer about to enter the international group competition in Miami, I thought it would be a great idea to create an event in Maple Ridge to sell tickets for Laura's treatments”.

Nothing will be missed at this event, the audience will have an opportunity to see a world class salsa demonstration, performance demos from dance schools around Maple Ridge and for those who wish to stay, a free salsa lesson afterwards. “We will be raffling off tons of prizes donated from local businesses, and all proceeds from the raffle and event ticket sales will go towards Laura’s cancer treatment expenses.”

Corporate sponsorships has enabled the event, “I was in awe as I watched the community round up in support as corporate media sponsors jumped in, Cosmic Catering has donated a dessert bar and the Swan-e-Set golf club, without hesitation, opened the doors to their ballroom to host the event” says Rahmany. More raffle donations are needed.

Doors open at 8:00 pm on November 9. Tickets are $20 (before November 1) or $25 after October 31. There’s a limit of 300 tickets available. If you’d like more information about donating raffle prizes, or how you can help Caldovino, please visit www.dr.nima.com or email drnima@drnima.com.
